are cold, at C. B. Mitchell's. Try some of his frozen luxuries. (30apr-1f)

RUNAWAY.—Mrs. Luther Ashcraft and Mrs. Alf. Murray were driving from Carlisle on Saturday in two buggies.
Mrs. Murray's horse ran off and collided with the other vehicle, throwing Mrs.
Murray out and breaking one of her limbs. Mrs. Ashcraft was slightly bruised.

A GOOD PLACE.—The neatest and most popular tonsorial parlor in the city is the new place of Carl Crawford adjoining the Bourbon Bank. Everything new, except the barbers who are old in experience. If you want the best service in the way of shave, hair cut or bath, give Carl a call and you will be treated right. (30may1f)

"THE BLUE AND THE GRAY."—On Friday, July 4th, the members of Garth Lodge, A. O. U. W., of this city, will present the patriotic military drama, "The Blue and the Gray," at the Grand Opera House, for the benefit of their Charity Fund. The play will be presented with full scenic and mechanical effects. Rehearsals are now in progress and it will be one of the most successful amateur entertainments ever given in this city.

MEET OLD FRIENDS.—A hand-bill distributed on our streets the other day, advertising a colored excursion to Frankfort, Sunday, June 22, after relating all pleasures to be derived from a visit to the Capital City, winds up with the following startling information: "We have made arrangements that all persons going on this train can visit the prison. You see, now friends, you will have one good day's pleasure and meet your many friends from all parts of the State."

THE FALLS CITY.

The Editor of The News Takes a Few Days Off and Mixes
With the Antlered
Herd.

In company with a delegation of Paris Elks, the editor of THE NEWS left here on Wednesday evening last for Louisville, where the great Elks' Carnival and State Reunion was held.

On arriving in the Falls City, we found that Louisville had been forced to surrender to a band of men who were "the best people on earth," even if they do wear horns. The city was gaily decorated, and the color of the order, purple and white, were much in evidence.
It was, by far, the largest gathering of Elks ever held in the State.

The members of the Louisville lodge, and, in fact, the citizens generally, did everything in their power to make the visitors have a good time, and the meeting will long be remembered as a most pleasant one.

Louisville lodge is next the largest lodge in the United States, having nearly 1,100 members. New York is the largest. The Carnival, which was in progress for two weeks, was a great success in every way, and they will clear something like $11,000, which amount they will give to sweet charity.

While there, we had the pleasure of making the acquaintance of Mr. R. W.
Brown, the late President of the State Association, and the Managing Editor of the Evening Times. He is recognized as one of the hardest workers in the Louisville lodge.

We are under obligations to Mr. C. H.
Stotz, one of our antlered brothers, for many courtesies shown us.

Among the ex-Parisians whom we chanced to meet, was Henry Spears, who made inquiries about old Paris friends. Mr. Spears is still in the cement business and doing well.

We also met Consul Wilson, who formerly clerked in Talbot Clay's shoe store, in this city. He has a most lucrative position with a large wholesale shoe house. Others we heard of, but were unable to see, were: Joseph Morrison, Mrs. Sallie Short Barnes, Clellie McCann, Dr. Lew Spears, Thomas Talbot, Dr. Lewis Frank, Harry Hutchcraft, Pierce Henry, James R.
McChesney and family, and Dr. Hugh Clendennin.

Lexington was chosen as the next place for the annual meeting, and our friend, Wm. Preston Kimball, of that city, was elected President.

The Rev. Baker Lee, dean of Christ's Church, and the pride of Lexington lodge, in a brilliant and witty speech, captivated the convention. He opened by saying: "I am a preacher and an Elk," and was cheered. The ball for the sponsors and maids at the Elks' home was the brilliant closing event of the reunion and a fitting final of a meeting marked with pleasure and good fellowship.

The Louisville Times, of Friday, throws the following bouquet, to two members of Paris lodge:

"If you would ask any member of the Paris delegation for the name of one of its most popular members, it is certain that you would hear Owen Davis called by a dozen people. He is Past Exalted Ruler, a popular member of the order and a credit to his lodge in every way."

"Another newspaper man who has put aside his pencil to have a holiday, is George D. Mitchell, the editor of the BOURBON NEWS. He is a faithful member of Paris lodge, and is a leader in its delegation here. He has many friends in Louisville, and is busy renewing old acquaintances."

Kentucky Chautauqua.

The Sixteenth Annual Session of the Kentucky Chautauqua will be held at Woodland Park, Lexington, June 24 to July 4, inclusive. One of the best programs ever offered, will be given. The detailed program will be mailed to any address upon application to CHARLES SCOTT, Business Manager, Lexington, Kentucky.

First National Bank.

A meeting of the stockholders of the new First National Bank of Paris was held yesterday afternoon and the following directors were elected:

C. M. Thomas, W. P. Ardery, J. A.
LaBue, Clifton Aensparger, Wm. Haley, J. Frank Clay, M. R. Jacoby, R. B.
Hatchcraft and Cloll Turney.

The directors elected the following officers:
C. M. Thomas, President; W. P. Ardery, Vice President; James McClure, Cashier.

They will begin business on July 1st.

CHURCH CHIMES.

Interesting children's services were held at the First Presbyterian, Baptist and Christian churches on Sunday morning last. They were all well attended and all had appropriate and interesting programs.

The next meeting of the Women's Presbyterian Union will be held at Covington.

apoplexy received some months ago, but his condition at this time is not considered serious.

—Miss Anne Lee Washington will leave for her home, in Newport, this week.
Miss Washington has added much to the musical and social life of our city that we are exceedingly gratified to know that she will return in September. With great kindness of disposition, she has contributed her talents to the general good, upon all occasions, in a manner to completely identify herself with our people. Upon behalf of the public, we take pleasure in according to her this recognition, and the full need of their due appreciation and praise.

On the Sidewalks

[Contributed.]

Oh, the sidewalks here on Court day, They are queer—they are queer,
And a lady walks with fear, Walks with fear.
Up and down she bobs around,
And her heart with fear abounds
On the sidewalks here on Court-day,
Court-day, dear.

If she goes out for a walk,
She makes an awful talk,
On the sidewalks here on Court day,
Court-day, dear.
She's got to keep her equilib-Or she'll slip upon a quid,
On the sidewalks here on Court-day,
Court-day, dear.
